GOKULAM GRAND

RESORT & SPA

Set beside the stunningly beautiful Vembanad Lake, Gokulam Grand's architecture, inspired by the area's tropical climate, rises organically from the exquisitely landscaped earth. Featuring cottages villas and utility areas with sloping roofs and colors that blend into the lush foliage.

Arrive, be welcomed in the traditional manner, with garlands and an organic welcome drink. The resort's open ended lobby showcases exquisitely designed wooden pillars, a wood paneled roof, traditional brass lamps and plush sofas.

Stone paved pathways lead out from the lobby, branching towards the accommodations on one end and towards the restaurant, bar and spa at the other. Little canals drawing sustenance from the backwaters wind through grounds towards a large pond beside the lake shore. Small bridges cure over the canals and tertiary pathways fringed by leafy and flowering plants extending to form a network between rows of accommodations. A centerpiece is the meandering pool with islets topped by ornamental plants that weaves between rows of pool rooms on either end. Moving further towards the lake, guest are presented with a small amphitheater and a swimming pool with a deck and poolside bar overlooking the lake. On one end, a set of rooms are arrayed facing the lake. The paths from the lobby skirt the pool and connect to a walk way set beside the lake shore.

KUMARAKOM

Situated besides the serene expanse of the Vembanad Lake, Kumarakom is renowned amongst travellers for the scenic beauty of its backwaters and a fabulously endowed bird sanctuary that is home to endemic and migratory species.

The backwaters of Kuttanad are beside the estuary where numerous rivers that flow from the mountains of Kerala drain into the Arabian Sea.

Guests will enjoy houseboat cruises along mysterious canals, partake of freshwater and saltwater fish and enjoy the warm hospitality that the people in the area are known to offer.
